NRW.Center

Project information

The functions of the NRW.CENTER in Chengdu include offices, apartments, commercial space, restaurants and other special uses (e.g. exhibition, medical care, education) on 306,150 m² gross floor area (GFA). Another 293,400 m² gross floor space is to be developed as residential units. Especially in the Service Apartments near the park, the view of the park as a “Quality Living Factor” offers future residents a high degree of amenities.
